Weekends: The non-custodial parent shall be entitled to visit with the infant each weekend upon the following terms and conditions:

- a. Every other weekend from Friday at 5:00 P.M. to Saturday at 5:00 P.M., commencing _____.
- b. On the weekends alternating with item (a) above, the visitation shall be from 5:00 P.M. Saturday to 5:00 P.M. Sunday.

12-24 Months:

When the child reaches twelve (12) months, the standard visitation schedule, including holiday visitation shall become effective,

PROVIDED the standard summer visitation for the 12-24 month old child shall be as follows:

First Visitation: The visitation shall commence at 6:00 P.M. the first Sunday after Memorial Day and continue for one week, ending at 6:00 P.M. on that Sunday

Second Visitation: The visitation shall commence at 6:00 P.M. the third Sunday in July and continue for one week, ending at 6:00 P.M. on that Sunday.

It is further ordered that the regular visitation provided for in the standard visitation schedule (i.e. every other weekend and every other Monday) shall not be suspended during the summer months for the child from 12-24 months of age.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event one or more children are 12-24 months old and one or more children are over the age of two (2), the summer visitation shall occur as if all the children are over the age of two (2).
